Future of beach huts under review

by Kevin Fahey & Anders Larsson

A REVIEW into the ownership and management of East Devon District Council beach huts in Seaton and Beer is under way.

Among other proposals being considered are site fees in Beer being brought into line with other open market rents.

In Seaton, the town council is interested in buying the sites it currently rents from EDDC.

EDDC's Cabinet has recommended that an extensive refurbishment and replacement programme be put in place to improve provision of its beach huts and chalets.

The programme also covers beach huts in Sidmouth, Exmouth and Budleigh Salterton.

It has been proposed to allocate £19,000 towards new beach hut schemes and the replacing of older huts.

Any changes would become effective in 2016, and an EDDC spokesperson said: "The current management of all the sites, in addition to the buildings, will be included within the council's rolling condition survey programme.

"However, all tenants will be responsible for their own National non-domestic rates (NNDR) payments, where appropriate."

Tenants will also be expected to commit to their beach hut or chalet conforming to a realistic design, style and colour, in keeping with the overall scheme.

Councillor David Cox, portfolio holder for finance, said: "The principles behind the review of the beach huts and chalets are valid and solid.

"It is important that in the current economically challenging climate, the council takes a more robust commercially rounded approach to its assets.

"The changes will be initiated in 2016, which will give ample time for consultation and will ensure that proper consideration is given to the management of these non-residential assets."

"A proposal that the managed hut sites at Seaton West and Budleigh Salterton will be offered on the open market as a site-only package, with a £250 one-off charge for an existing hut, will be the subject of further consultation.

"The Seaton Searchlight Emplacement will be offered for sale on either a freehold interest or leasehold basis. "The site, which is currently vacant, has already attracted expressions of interest from local groups and the town council."

Seaton Town Council has expressed an interest in buying the four sites it currently rents from EDDC.

A letter formally expressing an interest was sent last week, and the council is awaiting a reply.

"The site fees at Beer, which are significantly lower than those in other parts of East Devon, will be brought into line with other open market rents when they come up for renewal. Subject to consultation, Beer's 56 sites will be offered on the open market, with new five-year leases to commence on April 1st 2016."

At a meeting of Beer Parish Council last week (January 13th) councillors agreed that there could be no objection to raising annual rents to match those charged to private rentals but concern was expressed as to how the new leases would be awarded.

"There must be some priority given to existing beach hut holders," said Councillor Geoff Pook, who also represents Beer and Branscombe on EDDC.

He added: "But at the moment we don't know the mechanism for dishing them out and whether the current holders will have first claim."

There was a concern that the beach huts could become available on the free market which councillors felt shouldn't be allowed to happen.

"What we don't want is for the beach huts to become like holiday homes with people getting hold of them and then never using them," added Councillor Pook. He also said: "The beach huts in Beer are totally different from the ones in Budleigh Salterton and Seaton. They are part of the character of Beer and there is a tradition of families using them after the school and into the evenings. If holiday home owners got them and didn't use them it would kill the area."

Councillor Pook stressed again that discussions were still on-going and a final decision had yet to be made on how the new lease system would work.

TOP STORIES FROM ALL THE OTHER EAST DEVON TOWNS

AXMINSTER

No money available for Webster's

AFTER winning the planning battle to demolish Webster's Garage, an eyesore that had blighted Axminster town centre for 30 years, site owner Hallmark Estates (Devon) Limited says it has no money to develop the site, it was revealed at a meeting of Axminster Town Council.

Permission to turn the site into a car park for up to five years, until a long-term solution can be found, was given in spring last year after a protracted planning battle.

Initially, it was hoped the car park would be operational before the end of last year. Last November Hallmark Estates applied to EDDC for an enabling grant.

A precise sum was not given, but Hallmark Estates owner Neil Hiscocks said it involved "tens of thousands of pounds".

The grant was refused, and the company is now pinning its hopes on what is described as 'an enabling loan' from East Devon District Council.

Members of the public sought a progress report when Axminster Town Council met last week.

Andrew Moulding, in his capacity as a district councillor, explained that Hallmark Estates and EDDC are working together, but the company has no money to take the project forward.

He added that the company has had no success with private investors, and that it is unwilling to take the project forward as a joint venture with EDDC.

Councillor Moulding also confirmed that an application had been made, but said that EDDC can't be seen to provide money for a private enterprise.

Mr Hiscocks has since issued a statement, saying: "Andrew is correct in that we don't at the moment have access to the resources to demolish Websters.

"We are a small company with limited income, and traditional lenders are not a source open to us."

From the editor's chair The cost of three nurses?

WHEN I heard that the NHS Trust, so determined to close hospital beds in Axminster come what may, had gone back to the High Court to achieve that goal, the first thing I did was to instruct reporter Anders Larsson to ask how much the legal proceedings were costing.

We half expected the Northern Devon Healthcare Trust to come back saying that this was sensitive information they could not release. Had that been the case, we would have used the Freedom of Information Act to find out how much they were spending on seeing through their plan to close in-patient beds in Axminster and move them to Seaton.

We were surprised therefore to get a prompt answer from chief executive Dr Alison Diamond confirming that they had allocated "precious NHS" resources - her words, not mine - to "defend themselves in cases like this" amounting to £75,000 to legally enable them to "maintain a safe service for patients".

Defend themselves from what?

We are talking about the temporary closure here for the winter months, not the long term plan to shut the beds to save £500,000 and put a question mark over the future of Axminster Hospital. That decision will not be made until the extended period of consultation expires in February. There is great suspicion in and around Axminster that that decision has been made.

So the NHS is expecting to spend £75,000 on justifying their temporary closure. I don't know how much a nurse earns these days - but seventy five grand would probably cover the cost of three nurses, certainly one supervisor.

Has the world gone crazy?

Every day we read that the NHS is virtually bankrupt, haemorrhaging money, and here we are spending £75,000 on legal advice on a temporary closure when Axminster League of Friends have offered £300,000 to keep the beds open. We all accept these are difficult days for the NHS and no one doubts the sincerity of health officials to do what is best for patients.

But spending £75k on legal advice is a bitter pill to swallow in such circumstances.

HONITON

Plans to save town day centre

COMMUNITY leaders have set in motion an ambitious plan to save the St Michael's day centre from permanent closure.

A small team of councillors is fronting a new initiative with the intention of protecting social care services at the centre in the long term.

The process is still in the very early stages but, initially, project leaders are calling on local organisations and other members of the community to play their part in securing a future for the facility.

Devon County Council announced last year that it would be withdrawing its funding for day centres, as part of a programme of cost-cutting measures.

And St Michael's is currently preparing for closure, with the council seeking alternative provision for many of Honiton's elderly residents who make use of its services.

Deputy Mayor John Zarczynski says he has approached the county council to see if a solution can be reached where the building is taken over by a charitable organisation for community use.

And he told Pulman's View that there are a number of ex-nursing staff who have already expressed a willingness to volunteer at the centre.

"Every penny will count, but I feel confident we can save it," he said.

"We are in the very early stages of this process, but we have volunteers lined up and other groups have expressed an interest in finding a solution to this problem."

SEATON

Beach huts future under review

A REVIEW into the ownership and management of East Devon District Council beach huts in Seaton and Beer is under way.

Among other proposals being considered are site fees in Beer being brought into line with other open market rents.

In Seaton, the town council is interested in buying the sites it currently rents from EDDC.

EDDC's Cabinet has recommended that an extensive refurbishment and replacement programme be put in place to improve provision of its beach huts and chalets.

The programme also covers beach huts in Sidmouth, Exmouth and Budleigh Salterton.

It has been proposed to allocate £19,000 towards new beach hut schemes and the replacing of older huts.

Any changes would become effective in 2016, and an EDDC spokesperson said: "The current management of all the sites, in addition to the buildings, will be included within the council's rolling condition survey programme.

"However, all tenants will be responsible for their own National non-domestic rates (NNDR)

COLYFORD

Traffic issues not treated same way

PARISH councillors have complained that Colyford is not being treated the same as nearby village Sidford with regards to traffic calming measures on the same road that runs through both communities.

It was reported at last week's Colyton Parish Council meeting that traffic calming measures along the A3052 in Colyford, such as a 20mph speed limit, were unlikely to be introduced because it was a main road. However, members argued that the same road through Sidford, just eight miles west, had a 20mph speed limit.

Councillors recently started looking into traffic problems through Colyford after mayor of the village and parish councillor, Howard West, said that he thought people parking on a verge outside the post office and butchers was a safety hazard, as it affected the view of drivers exiting onto the A3052 from Seaton Road.

However, following a site meeting at the post office and butchers, councillors agreed that the main concern was drivers speeding down the A3052, which currently has a 30mph limit, and it was not worth preventing parking on the verge, which could be detrimental to the businesses.

Instead, members suggested that some kind of traffic calming measure should be introduced, with ideas including an electronic flashing speed limit sign or a reduced speed limit of 20mph.

Fundraiser's 100 day 'dryathlon'

REBECCA Sims has become a 'dryathlete' to raise money for Cancer Research UK.

A dryathlete is someone who gives up alcohol for a period of time, usually a month, in aid of a worthy cause.

Rebecca, who lives in Axminster and work's at Paul's Bakery in Seaton, is going a bit further.

She explained: "I am not being the average dryathlete, I am going dry for not just the month of January but for 100 days!

"I started on the December 28th and will finish on the April 6th 2015.

"During this time I will not only be going sober to raise money for the charity, but will be using other fundraising methods too.

"I will be holding a raffle, doing a run and anything else I can think of to raise as much as possible."

She has set a fundraising target of £500, and said: "Every year I like to dedicate time to raise money for Help for Heroes or Cancer Research UK.

"Two years ago I did the Dryathlon for January and this Christmas I decided I would do it again, but with a twist.

"Relatives and friends have been sadly taken or struck by cancer and in 2014 we saw Cancer Research UK's message to 'stand up to cancer' and I thought I'm going to.

"With kind donations we are making a difference and bringing forward the day when all cancers are cured."

Speaking to Pulman's View almost 20 days in her challenge, she said: "It's going surprisingly well and I feel really good for giving it up, but most of all I feel great for being a part of making a difference for a great cause.

"Thank you to all the wonderful people who have donated and I hope others can help me reach my target of £500."

Public digs deep for local foodbank

Food Bank in Seaton leaders have praised the general public's generosity over the past year, including the Christmas peak.

Despite having its busiest week ever the week before Christmas, the food bank's shelves were replenished ready for the Christmas Eve drop in.

Secretary Simon d'Albertanson said: "The boxes in Tesco and Co-op are a reflection of the huge generosity of the people of Seaton. Thank you so much to everyone who has contributed in 2014."

Volunteer Kate Jones, who has taken over the management of the food bank Facebook page, added: "There's been so much kindness shown by people who have brought in special Christmas treats along with the usual essentials."

Local trader Janet Phillips from Panic Design also helped out by supplying specialist outdoor rations for a number of rough sleepers supported by the food bank in recent weeks.

"They are so much easier to cook on a camping stove," one grateful recipient told the food bank.

Mr d'Albertanson added: "The food bank team would like to say a big thank you to everyone who has supported this vital project in 2014 together with a number of local organisations whose generosity is also hugely appreciated."

Food Bank in Seaton welcomes donations of non-perishable food at the large Co-op and Tesco in Seaton.

Donations can also be made at any of the churches in Seaton, Axmouth, Beer and at the town hall in Seaton.

Suitable foods include baked beans, rice pudding, sponge pudding, tomatoes, meat, vegetables, fish, soup, fruit (all tinned), cereals, tea bags (packets of 40), instant coffee Milk UHT (long life or powdered), fruit Juice (carton, long life), sugar (500g), pasta/rice (1kg), instant mashed potato, pudding (longlife or tinned), instant custard, pasta sauce, biscuits and snack bars, squash/cordials, toilet rolls, female sanitary products. ## Brass players plan Seaton band

TWO Seaton residents say the time is right to form a brass ensemble in the town.

The former principal euphonium player of the famous Brighthouse and Rastrick Band, Stephen Lord, has teamed up with fellow Seaton resident Peter Motson.

The latter said: "If we can get together six or eight players who can play to a reasonable standard, we must surely be on our way.

"It is our hope to establish a band that will represent our town and our community at Remembrance Sunday, Christmas festivities, civic occasions and the like."

Mr Lord added: "There must be enough players in and around the area to start a small group in the first instance.

"Who knows what might develop as we add more players of varying standards into the band."

He added: "Much water has flowed down the Axe and into the sea since the last musical notes of Seaton Town Band echoed around the streets and parks of Seaton.

"Long gone are the days when concerts were given on the seafront and in the town's gardens.

"The final notes from the band were played many years ago, possibly around 1915, and since those times the town has been without any brass band or ensemble.

"This story is echoed all around the British Isles as band after band has gone into extinction during the last century.

"Until now any thoughts about forming a new band have been in the dreams of a few local musicians - until, perhaps, now."

They both feel Seaton is on the up and that the time is right to form the band.

Mr Lord explained: "The town is now on the cusp of a new dawn and this could now be the time to launch this exciting project.

"What form the ensemble will take remains to be seen.

"The steering group has already gathered together some instruments, music and stands but now the ensemble is looking out for new players.

"Just imagine how wonderful it would be to have our own brass ensemble playing at the opening ceremony of the new Jurassic Centre later this year."

Anyone interested in the proposed ensemble, either as a player or to offer help in whatever shape or form, should contact Mr Lord on 01297 21872 or steve.lord1005@btinternet.com

'Become a councillor' roadshows

RETURNING OFFICER ENCOURAGES PEOPLE TO STAND FOR ELECTION

WITH local elections in East Devon taking place on May 7th (coinciding with the General Election), Returning Officer Mark Williams will shortly be embarking on a tour of the district to explain the procedures for standing as candidates for towns, parishes or the district council.

The events will take place in Axminster, Cranbrook, Exmouth and Honiton.

The roadshows are a repeat of an initiative Mark has undertaken every four years in the run-up to local elections to make people aware that they could play an active part in local democracy either representing their town or parish or one of the 32 wards on East Devon District Council.

The aim is to inform people about the need for new councillors to come forward, the process that is followed and the timetable for nominations.

He said: "If you care about the area that you live or work in and the issues facing local people, you could be a councillor.

"Perhaps you enjoy reading the local newspaper and often have a strong opinion on the issues you read about.

"You may enjoy talking to friends and colleagues about what's going on in the area. You may feel that certain sections of the community or people who live in a particular neighbourhood are getting a raw deal and need stronger representation.

"Research tells us that people are most concerned about issues such as crime, schools, transport and the environment.

"Your local council can make a difference on all these issues and many more, and so can you as a local councillor."

Make a difference

According to the Electoral Commission, there are many reasons why people decide to become a local councillor.

These include:

- Wanting to make a difference and be involved in shaping the future of the local community;
- Being concerned about their local area and wanting to ensure that the community gets the right services;
- Wanting to represent the views of local people and ensure that community interests are taken into account;
- Wanting to pursue their political beliefs;
- Wanting to contribute their business or professional skills;
- Concerns about one particular issue;
- As an extension of what they are already doing through a political party, trade union, charity, voluntary group or school governing body – becoming a councillor can be the next step.

The Electoral Commission says that groups made up of diverse individuals tend to make better informed decisions.

It's important that councils have councillors who not only reflect and represent the communities they serve, but also have a broad range of skills and life experience.

You don't have to be highly educated or have a profession. Skills gained through raising a family, caring for a sick or disabled relative, volunteering or being active in faith or community groups can be just as valuable.

Support and training

Don't worry if you don't feel that you currently have the skills or confidence to be a councillor. All councils provide support, information and training for new councillors.

Local sessions where Mark Williams will be talking about the role of local councillors take place on the following dates and at these venues:

- Cranbrook – Thursday, January 29th from 5:30–7pm at Cranbrook Market, Younghayes Centre, Younghayes Road, Cranbrook, EX5 3BA;
- Honiton – Monday, February 2nd from 6:30–7:30pm at The Beehive, Dowell Street, Honiton, EX14 1LZ;
- Axminster – Thursday, February 12th from 6:30–7:30pm at the Senior Citizens' Centre, Old Courthouse, Church Street, Axminster, Devon, EX3 5AQ.

With the General Election taking place this year on the same date, it's also vital that as many people as possible use their right to vote by ensuring their name is on the Electoral Register.

The Electoral Commission is running a national campaign to encourage people to sign up through the new Individual Elector Registration (IER) system, with the message: 'Your vote matters; make sure you're in'.

National Voter Registration Day and Overseas Voter Registration Day is on Thursday, February 5th.

It's Honiton's discovery day

HONITON Together Discovery Day will bring together local organisations, social entrepreneurs and charities.

The event will be held in The Beehive on Thursday January 22nd from 1pm–4pm and will offer an opportunity to network.

Topics under discussion will include: The Local Economy (What is it for? How can it work for local people?); A Healthy Honiton (What would it look like? How can we get there?); The Neighbourhood Development Plan (a vision of Honiton's future); Funding (Big Lottery, Heritage Lottery, funding strategy support); Honiton Together (how can we take it forward?).

Anyone attending will also be able to pitch for a share of £5,000 for a project benefitting the local community. The Honiton Together project is supported by East Devon District Council (EDDC) and has been set up with Our Place funding, which comes from Central Government's Locality budget.

The development phase has also been supported by Honiton Town Council, East Devon Volunteer Support Agency, Devon County Council and Honiton Worx.

An EDDC spokesperson said: "Whoever said 'it's not a problem, but an opportunity' might have been talking about Honiton's reaction to the challenges the community faces as a result of budget cuts in the public sector and local services being under threat.

"There is a chance to find out more during Honiton Together Discovery Day, and there are still places available for stallholders.

"Among the features of the discovery day is a live 'Dragon's Den' session, where a share of £5,000 is up for grabs for suitable projects. You will have a chance to pitch for a share of the funding in a live session, with an audience vote.

"Help in designing your pitch will be given on the day and decisions in principle will be made before the event closes. Slots for bidding are limited and filling up fast

"So, if you still haven't already booked your place or your stall, please email agibson@eastdevon.gov.uk."

Hospital beds: NHS spending £75,000 on legal costs

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

NORTHERN Devon Healthcare NHS Trust could spend up to £75,000 on fighting the legal challenge made by Axminster Hospital Action Group.

The action group fought hard to prevent the temporary transfer of beds to Seaton Hospital, but seemed to have lost the battle on Wednesday, January 7th when NDHT made its decision.

The whole process was challenged through the judicial review route by the action group, though, and a High Court judge issued a ruling on Monday, January 12th which blocked the move until a hearing on February 18th at the very least.

But the action group's victory was short-lived as another judge ripped up the decision following an appeal by NDHT.

When asked by Pulman's View how much NDHT has spent in legal fees on this matter, chief executive Dr Alison Diamond said: "There is no central fund to help trusts defend themselves in cases like this and it is a great shame that we are having to allocate precious NHS resources – up to £75,000 – to ensure we are legally able to make this temporary change and maintain a safe service for our patients."

"The trust felt it had no option but to continue this course of action due to the very real, and escalating, safety issues that were putting patients at risk."

Dr James Vann, of Axminster Hospital Action Group, would not say how much the group is spending on the challenge, but said Axminster Care Service and Axminster Hospital League of Friends have assisted with financing their campaign.

The action group and League of Friends issued a statement after the latest twist last week, saying: "The League of Friends had offered £300,000 to support efforts to retain the beds asking the trust to do whatever was necessary to allow this to happen."

"Unfortunately there was no request for help from the trust until after the board decision."

Mayor calls public meeting

"Whilst we had not succeeded in halting the immediate move we were still eager to keep the offer on the table and investigate all opportunities for reinstatement of the beds."

Representatives from both Axminster and Seaton Leagues of Friends, Axminster Hospital Action Group and NDHT met on Friday of last week to investigate ways to ensure correct staffing levels to "get the beds back".

Two task forces have been established with members from all parties. Progress will be reviewed during a meeting on Friday, February 6th.

In a separate move, Axminster Mayor Jeremy Walden has called a public meeting to discuss the wider issue of health service provision in the area.

The meeting will be held in Axminster Guildhall on Thursday, January 29th, starting at 7.30pm.

It was called in response to the formation of a stakeholder group when councillors and League of Friends representatives from throughout East Devon met with NEW Devon Clinical Commissioning Group in Sidmouth last week.

NEW CCG is in the process of consulting on a raft of proposals, including the permanent transfer of in-patient beds from Axminster to Seaton.

Councillor Andrew Moulding and League of Friends chairman Steve Holt are representing Axminster, but more could be added to the group at a later stage.

Invited to speak at last week's meeting, Dr Vann said it was important that the group acts quickly to calm the public mood.

He said: "Our staff are not being well looked after and the CCG has a responsibility to produce a result quickly, having made a proposal some months ago."

Councillor Moulding felt the stakeholder consultation process should have been carried out in advance of the proposals being published.

He said: "I do not think the public should have been presented with a preferred option. This should have been discussed first."

"People should have been able to have said what they felt should happen rather than look at preferred options, which has created a lot of consternation."

Costings for the CCG's proposals are expected to be scrutinised by the group at the next meeting on February 4th. The consultation will run until February 24th.

Patients treated as 'pawns' by NHS Trust

WE write to deplore the action of North Devon Healthcare Trust in the hasty move of all Axminster in-patients last Wednesday. We feel that they have been treated as mere pawns in this protracted saga.

The suggestion to move patients to Seaton Hospital was first mooted in September. We are at a loss to understand the actions of the Trust and the Clinical Commissioning Group in the light of the offer of £300,000 from the League of Friends which led to discussions in a last minute attempt to resolve staffing levels.

The NDHT has spent thousands of pounds in a meaningless "consultation" period, money that could have been used on front line nursing.

Having worked at the splendid Axminster Hospital for over 30 years and seen many millions of pounds donated by grateful patients to enable the facilities to be updated, we feel that this area has been let down by a distant, seemingly inefficient and short-sighted management. We feel that the goodwill within this community has been severely compromised.

TO THE EDITOR

Local stove makers in national project

AXMINSTER-based stove manufacturer Arada will join ten other small to medium manufacturing enterprises in England and Wales taking part in a resource efficiency project over the next 12 to 15 months.

The project, sponsored by DEFRA, Rolls-Royce plc and manufacturers' organisation EEF, will look for cost-effective ways of improving sustainability and reducing the waste of natural resources.

Arada will benefit from the support and expertise of efficiency manager Phil Marks, who said: "Being able to develop collaborative opportunities and share knowledge, learning and experiences, amongst a group of established, forward-looking businesses working in different market sectors, is going to be exciting."

The resource efficiency managers are already helping to determine the potential for business improvement by agreeing priorities and plans.

Part of the process has included strategic sustainability reviews with each business by Bangor University.

Director of finance at Arada, Vanessa Smith, said: "Arada is proud to be part of this project and to work alongside Phil Marks to improve our efficiency, lower the pressure on natural resources and reduce wastage during our stove manufacturing process.

"We care about the environment and where our raw materials are sourced and want to support UK manufacturing whilst working as an eco-friendly and sustainable company."

RNLI shop manager retires

■ STEPPING DOWN | Audrey Tims is retiring as the RNLI shop manager in Beer

AUDREY Tims is retiring as sales manager of the Royal National Lifeboat Institution shop in Beer, writes KEVIN FAHEY.

After seven years in charge Audrey, who lives in Beer, decided it was time to take a break due to on-going health issues.

But she leaves the shop, which overlooks the east beach, in a far healthier state than when she took it over with the team of 17 volunteers raising turnover impressively.

"When I started the shop made £20,000 but last year that had risen to £32,000," said Mrs Tims.

"It is all down to the staff and it would not work without them."

Traditionally the shop opens the week before Good Friday and then stays open all summer and into the autumn before the shutters are brought down on the last Sunday in October when the clocks go back.

"Unless it is raining – and it has to be heavy – we are open every day seven days a week!" added Mrs Tims.

"The job has taken up a lot of my time and energy and while I am stepping down I hope to stay on the committee (of the Seaton, Beer & District Branch) but I will no longer be in the hut."

Branch secretary

Wendy Cummins paid tribute to Tims' work in the hut which was launched in 1980.

"Audrey has done a marvellous job and will be greatly missed by everyone who works there," said Mrs Cummins. Hopefully someone will come forward to fill this vital role."

Anyone interested in joining the team of volunteers running the shop should contact Mrs Cummins on 01297 23040.

Beer news in brief

OVER the past 12 months Beer has just enjoyed the lowest crime rate since modern records were first kept.

A total of 24 crimes were committed in Beer during 2014, which was a significant reduction on the 44 the previous year – not to mention the total of 50 crimes recorded in 2004.

The annual report also confirmed that two suspects from Exeter have been charged for the two residential burglaries in Park Road during April while a 21-year-old Exeter man has been summonsed for the three burglaries to huts on Beer beach in May.

Four months during the year were completely crime free while the busiest month was in September with five incidents. In 13 of the crimes police identified suspects.

THE East Devon Artists for Charity has confirmed it will be staging its annual Branscombe Art Exhibition this year.

The exhibition will feature over 50 artists comprising mainly paintings but also pottery, glass and wood turning.

Nurse tackles Indian bike challenge

A NURSE from Axmouth has responded to an appeal by leading infertility expert Professor Robert Winston.

Sandi Nicholls, 51, will take on a tough, women-only, cycling challenge taking place in Kerala, India.

The idea is to raise money for Genesis Research Trust, which works to improve the health of women and babies.

Sandi, who works at Springmead Surgery in Chard, needs to raise a minimum of £3,100 and is asking local people, businesses and companies to help her reach that target.

Sandi, who herself underwent open heart surgery three years ago, will join a group of other women in October to cycle approximately 350 kilometres over 5 days.

Training is already well underway, so you may see her cycling around the lanes of East Devon along with her friends and team mates Noelle Adler and Jules Castleden.

She said: "The money raised will help fund ground-breaking medical research into conditions affecting women and babies, in particular the causes of miscarriage, still birth, premature birth, ovarian cancer, infertility and genetic diseases."

Professor Robert Winston, the chairman of Genesis Research Trust, explained: "With nearly 250 babies dying in the UK every week from complications during pregnancy, our work has never been so essential for women and babies nationwide."

Sandi plans to hold a string of fundraising events, the first being an auction of promises at The Ship in Axmouth

Lease result for Chine

East Devon District Council's (EDDC) Cabinet has agreed to offer a 25-year plus lease for Chine Café and public toilets in Seaton as a development opportunity.

As previously reported, the seafront café has been empty since the previous lease expired early in 2014.

The decision to go ahead with the long lease option was made on Wednesday, January 7th.

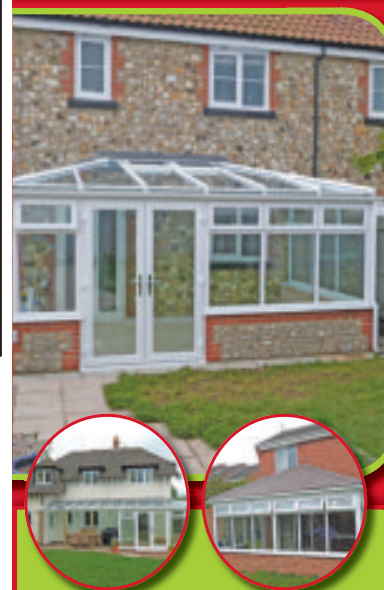

EDDC considered a number of options for the café and toilets and decided that offering the complete building would make the best use of the unique location while ensuring toilet facilities for the community continues.

It is hoped that an all-year round café will be provided.

Councillor Ian Thomas, cabinet member for economy and chairman of Seaton Regeneration Programme Board, said: "The building is in a prime seafront location and therefore offers a fantastic opportunity to a business to provide an exciting and attractive café for Seaton residents and visitors."

■ A FRISSEON of excitement and trepidation is beginning to build amongst members of All Saints Pantomime Society, as the staging of "Ali The Barber" grows ever nearer. The usual signs of panic are setting in as lines continue to be fumbled, musical notes are missed and the dressing up box is ransacked with increasing signs of desperation but, as we all know, it will probably be alright on the night! With a new and original script by Gay Atkinson, Clive Bareham and Dave Wicken, performances will take place in the village hall on January 29th, to 31st at 7.45pm. A society spokesperson said: "So come and join us for a tale that traverses time and space as we journey to ancient Baghdad in search of the missing sacred stone and where, hopefully, love will conquer all." Tickets are on sale at £5 each (children under 16 £2.50 each for the Thursday and Friday performances) and available from Anthea Bareham on 01460 221088 or by emailing thebarehams@bea-concottage.uk. They will also be available to buy from her at the village hall on Monday and Friday evenings between 7.30pm and 8.30pm.

Actors needed for walking play tribute to WWI soldiers

A PAYHEMBURY resident is seeking people willing to play their part in a promenade performance, paying tribute to the men of the parish who fought in the First World War.

John Somers - artistic director of Tale Valley Community Theatre (TVCT), which will give the performance - said: "They Dream of Home will be a promenade performance with audience following the story in different Payhembury locations, culminating at the war memorial.

"We have received permission from the relatives of two of the men killed in the war and whose names appear on the memorial, to include them as characters in the story.

"Audience members will witness the excitement as the idea of defending their country is put to the men of the village by parson, schoolmaster and vicar as 'their patriotic duty'.

"Scenes in the trenches leading to the Christmas truce then the resumption of fighting exist alongside the tearful farewell of Thomas Dimond, the lead character and whose name is on the memorial, with Gwen, a girl he has hardly got to know before enlisting.

"In Tom Dimond's mind, Gwen follows him throughout the play and she sings movingly near the memorial which bears his name.

"Her love temporarily resurrects Tom as he joins her in a duet to sing If you were the only girl in the world.

"As the audience walks to each scene they sing, accompanied by a brass band, popular songs of the period.

"Beginning in daylight, the battle scene will be in darkness and road closures will be arranged to ensure audience safety." ## Statement by Axminster's Town Mayor on the Budget for 2015/16

IN THESE times of austerity, with reduced funding, District and County Councils are restricting their operations to those things which they are legally obliged to perform. There is no indication, whatever the outcome of the General Election in May, that the situation will get any better in the foreseeable future, indeed there is every indication that they may get worse.

This does mean that there will be a reduction in some services unless Town and Parish Councils take up the provision or enablement of some of these. I believe we should not see this as a problem but an opportunity for Axminster to shape itself for the benefit of its citizens, in ways that those citizens want. With our work on the Neighbourhood Plan, there is a real chance that Axminster, with the involvement of its people, can become the town we want it to be, rather than the town others think it should be.

But, this does not come without a cost. Whilst volunteers and charitable organisations may help, in order to do the best we can, some funding will be necessary.

This is why I am proposing a budget for the coming year, 2015/16 of £150,855, representing a 9.66% year on year increase. I appreciate this is a hefty uplift in the current economic climate, but feel it is the right thing to do, and detail below where we expect this extra expenditure to go:

SALARIES We are budgeting for an increase of £15,560, the majority of which will be spent on recruiting and employing a handyperson/odd job person/ assistant to cemetery caretaker. We have committed a great deal over the past two years to putting planters and flowers around the town. This we felt has made a great improvement to Axminster and its civic pride, and encourages visitors and locals to use the town centre. However to make the most of this investment, and to ensure we do not rely too much on our few volunteers, these displays will need maintenance throughout the year. Equally, there are times during the summer season when the workload of our caretaker is such that he is not able to keep up with the grasscutting to a standard we require. We have also been requested by members of the public to attend to weeds in the town and to provide more frequent cutting of verges than is done by DCC. There also occurs during the year a variety of odd maintenance jobs that at the moment we have to call on contractors to perform. We believe we can get better value, and more prompt service if we are able to keep this 'in-house'.

PIPPINS Earlier in the year Devon County Council withdrew our Youth Services, and put notice of closure on Pippins. This was not entirely for cost reasons; but the youth team was consolidated elsewhere to assist the Young People's Social Service department which had been judged inadequate by Ofsted. This left our popular youth club, which helped many vulnerable and challenged young people; and The Project which assists those young people with mental health problems, without a home. As a short term measure the Town Council decided to take on the lease of Pippins, pending any long term solutions which may come forward. This meant that The Project still have a home, and that a group of volunteers could set up Axminster New Youth Club, which opened in November, and has 80 members spread over two evenings, weekly for juniors and seniors. It may be argued that these services should be provided by DCC or the NHS. The fact is that they are not! For example, CAMHS (Children's and Adolescent's Mental Health Services) has seen a 90% increase in referrals over the past two years, with no increase in real term funding. We, as a Town Council cannot be expected to provide a full mental health or youth service for the young people of Axminster, but it does behoove us to enable others to provide a level of care and service that does some good, providing the proper safeguards and training are in place, which they are. To date there is no sign of anyone coming forward with a long term solution to utilising Pippins for community benefit. We have therefore decided to budget £10,000 for the coming year to continue this support. This is net of any income from other uses that may pay for their hiring of the facilities. Already there are strong indications that other organisations may wish to hire rooms at Pippins, and our eventual income may well exceed our expectations.

AMENITIES We are here budgeting for an increase of £4900 year on year to £9,900. There are small increases in amounts set aside for maintenance of our seats, which are in continual use, and are much appreciated; and for our floral displays. We have also set aside £500 for cycle path clearing. Whilst these have been put in by Sustrans using lottery funding, there is no provision by DCC for their maintenance, above and beyond that which they allocate to footpaths. These facilities are much used and popular not just by cyclists but also by walkers and dog exercisers. We feel it prudent to set aside some monies to ensure these excellent facilities are kept in top order. The majority of the increase, however, is for £3000 for Christmas lights. £1000 has been allocated for maintenance and improvement of our own lights on the Minster Green. We have also allocated a maximum of £2000 to match fund, on a pound for pound basis the planned improvements to the Christmas lights by the Chamber of Commerce. This is for hire of lights, and will, if successful be an annual expenditure. Its use will be subject to approval by the Town Council of the plans put forward by the Chamber, and its success will be reviewed before we agree to any funding in 2017.

ADMINISTRATION The increase of £5000, year on year, included £2000 for a survey and report on providing disabled access to the upper floors of the Guildhall and Old Court House; £2500 for the upcoming elections in May, £500 for training costs - both for new councillors and for staff- and £250 for the Mayor's allowance - which has not increased for 15 years, and is not a personal allowance. Members of this Town Council do not receive any personal allowance. This may change after the elections in May, but we can only budget based on the views of current councillors. We are seeking to renegotiate our telephone contract to save money along with our electricity contract.

GUILDHALL Because of increased use and our investment over the past few years, we no longer have to subsidise to actual operation of The Guildhall. We do however have to maintain our property, and I think most will agree that it looks far better than for many years and is worthy of the title as one of the best venues in East Devon. We have budgeted for an expenditure of £9000, the same as last year, in order to maintain this position. This will include, amongst others work on the stanchions around the building and the installation of a dishwasher in the kitchen. (The cost of the dishwasher will be met from the Guildhall fundraising account, but the Town Council will have to pay for any plumbing alterations that are required. We have also set aside an extra £4000, for stage curtains, as a special project, in addition to the above amount, as these are in vital need of replacement in order to keep up the standards the public expect. New lights will be installed in a few months, for which monies have been set aside in previous years.

We have also budgeted, to be taken from reserves to upgrade the CCTV security system, and whilst a figure of £4000 has been set aside, we need to get professional advice on this matter.

The notice boards, in South Street, Poplar Mount and West Street car parks will also be replaced, by much better and longer lasting ones, and this will be paid for out of our community fund, which we receive from the solar panel power 'farm' at Raymond's Hill.

I believe that this budget represents a responsible and prudent plan for the coming year, bearing in mind what we expect to happen, and what the citizens of Axminster expect from their town. We, as the public, are proud of the town, and recognise that they expect certain services, facilities and amenities and we will do our very best to provide them at the best value. As it is the proposed increase will mean only an extra 7.5p per week for a Band D householder.

Do we trust the healthcare authority?

■ DO we trust the North Devon Healthcare authority? Are we happy that North Devon and Wonford Hospital is run as two separate health authorities with two costly administrations?

Would it make more sense if our district general/acute (major) hospital and our local community hospitals had the same administration? At the moment Wonford has no say in directing a patient to a local community bed, is this right?

Remote North Devon Healthcare Trust has refused to take into account our growing population in the Axe Valley or taken note of the number of people in Dorset who used Axminster Hospital. It is all right for the health authority to say put the patients out into the community but without the professional carers, the family carers would themselves become worn out and soon require care themselves.

The real point here is that the community hospitals provide a staging post between the acute hospitals and the professional carers giving support care at home. Has the health authority organised any extra home carers?

We would challenge the health authority to show that they have put in place sufficient additional home carers to ensure that the Home Care programme will operate effectively without detriment to patients and to show how the costs of such a programme, adequately staffed, compared with retaining the in-patient beds in community hospitals. Why are members of the North Devon Trust Panel promoting private nursing homes?

We would like to thank the League of Friends and Save our Hospital Group for all their efforts on supporting Axminster Hospital.

Council could take a tip from Whitehall

■ COUNCILLOR Williams in Pulman's View From Honiton (December 16th), highlights the time-consuming decision-making process of Seaton Town Council as identified by the need for meetings during the day and late into the night. This latter is credited with a number of residents declining to stand for election to the council.

At this stage, one has to ask how on earth does Whitehall deal with the problem when there are senior civil servants working at pressure to take the right decisions that affect the whole nation. The answer is, of course, the Civil Service Paper - one sheet of A4 with paragraphs for introduction/aim with limitations/factors, say 1-6; courses of action, say 1-3; and suggested course of action. Then the decision makers have the whole topic on one sheet of paper with the detail consigned to annexures/appendices.

The most important paragraph is the aim, together with any limitations, as then everyone knows what is to be achieved. Worth remembering that the maintenance of the aim is also the first Principle of War.

The adoption of a more effective method of working would markedly shorten the councils decision making process and is a more effective solution to widening access than asking employers to give their staff paid leave for council business.

It's onwards and upwards in 2015 for Devon Air Ambulance

■ AT the end of every year, when we step back and look at what we have achieved, I am always astounded at the amazing things that the community and businesses alike do in order to ensure their air ambulances have enough funding to keep flying. Thank you so much for your continued support.

This year has been yet another extraordinary one, not only from a fundraising perspective but also in relation to operational developments.

We became truly independent in 2014. The charity through, its trading company, already owns both of our EC135 helicopters but in the past always relied on an external body to operate them. This all changed this year when we applied for and were granted our own Air Operating Certificate. We were delighted to be the first air ambulance to do this under the auspices of the European Aviation Safety Agency.

Hospital helipads have been high up on the agenda, both locally and nationally, and we've had a really constructive year working closely with North Devon District, Torbay and the RD&E hospitals, who have all made substantial improvements to their pads, which helps ensure landing in built up areas like hospitals remains as safe as reasonably practical. Again, being independent operators now, we are able to liaise with hospitals direct, which really has made a difference in developing our relationships with them and working together to provide the safest service for the patient and the staff.

As the South West's Major Trauma Centre, we were delighted that Derriford Hospital in Plymouth announced and has since started work on their new state of the art helipad, not only for us but our other emergency services colleagues, like the coastguard, search and rescue and our neighbouring Cornwall Air Ambulance.

Our operations director, Nigel Hare, was able to assist in the planning stages to ensure the new helipad will be fit for purpose for future night operations too. It was a bonus that one of our Business On Board companies SWH Civils, a division of South West Highways Ltd, who supported us as their charity of the year, had got the contract to build. It's been a really constructive partnership and we are proud of the part we were able to play.

Looking forward to 2015 we're definitely going to continue moving forward and building on what we have achieved this year. The most exciting of these will lead up to extending our flying hours into the night.

To be able to do this we not only need to increase our regular income by £1 million a year, we also need to establish a network of community helipads across the county, so that we have pre-surveyed sites to land at during the hours of darkness, which in the winter can be as early as 4:30pm.

We would love to hear from you if you would like to express an interest to help in your community or you know of a suitable site.

On behalf of Devon Air Ambulance Trust I wish you a happy and healthy New Year.

HELÉNA HOLT,
CEO, Devon Air Ambulance Trust

Police speed checks are not propaganda

■ I WOULD like to comment on the letter headed "Message about speed not simple" in the Midweek Herald on December 17th.

It is important to provide some factual context. The figures regarding speeding motorists relate to the latest of a number of speed surveys (seven) carried out by Seaton Police (not only community support officers as claimed by your respondent) in response to concerns by residents who live near Seaton Down Hill. These concerns have been expressed for many years and relate to the ever increasing number of motorists who drive over the 30mph limit (the limit is set by Devon Highways with consultation with the police and the local community) - many at speeds of 50mph plus, thus endangering the safety of others.

This is not "propaganda", neither is it an exercise to "catch (motorists) for monetary benefit"; indeed, until recently, all motorists stopped have been warned and given educational leaflets about speeding.

A poem for postmen

■ DEAR postmen of Seaton, oh don't you know,
To drop rubber bands on the ground can cause woe,
For baby birds, who in the spring do leap from their nests and fly and sing,
When on the ground they do espy a wriggly worm (or is it?) - oh how to enjoy?
But when they swoop to pick it up, only to find in their gullets get stuck.
So, please Mr Postman take good care,
And your discarded bands to your bags repair.
So next when piles of post you sort,
Please give those baby birds a thought and recycle the bands in the ways we've been taught.
P.S. I think our Postmen do a brilliant job in all weathers, but this is just one personal niggle have.

CAROLE BOOTH,
Charles Way, Seaton

Despite the fact that this issue has also been raised publically and many motorists warned, it is shocking that there are still many who continue to flout the speed limits. These figures are based upon people caught whilst the police are required to wear high visibility jackets on straight stretches of road thus giving motorists every chance of slowing down to avoid being "clocked".

The reality for those of us who live near this road is that the situation is far more serious than the figures that the police provide, as we witness on a daily basis the inconsiderate and dangerous behaviour of too many motorists.

The police are not involved with "propaganda"; they are doing their job responding to justified local concerns, protecting the public and trying to prevent serious accidents. The message is simple: keep to the speed limits for your own safety and the safety of others.

PAUL ALLAN (and other concerned residents),
Seaton Down Hill

Thanks for help from my 'Christmas angels'

■ I SHOULD like to tell you about my Christmas angels this year (2014).

I am very disabled and cannot walk. After a visit to the HSBC bank in Axminster my son, who was with me, went to collect his car and bring it to the bank door. But in his haste to get me seated he closed the driver door, not to cause an obstruction, and left his keys in the ignition. There was an ominous double-click and the car was locked.

Nigel Rowe of Castle Garage came straight round and with his son, John, spent nearly an hour and a half opening the doors.

Meanwhile, the proprietor of Apple Tree Galleries came to my rescue. A chair was brought outside for me and when I went in the shop, I had a drink and was so kindly looked after.

I was, and am, so grateful for their kindness.

WATER SURVIVAL
BOX

Supported by Palmair's View View From Newspapers and
The Weekend Series

◆ IN A bid to raise £10,000 over two years for Water Survival Box, we are encouraging our readers and local organisations in East Devon, South Somerset and West Dorset – where we distribute in excess of 40,000 papers every week – to organise a fundraising event for the charity.

This Water Survival Box is crammed with all you need to stay alive after you have lost everything – cooking and eating utensils, basic means of shelter and other essential kit – but most importantly a water-purification pump that will make clean water from dirty water and provide for a family of four everyday for a year.

If you would like to organise an event, telephone James Coles on 01297 446155 and we will promote it in our columns.

To make a donation, send a cheque payable to 'Water Survival Box – View account' to: James Coles, Water Survival Box campaign, View From Newspapers, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3DB.

Tenth anniversary of disaster that kickstarted charity

ON BOXING Day 2004, an earthquake measuring 9.1 to 9.3 on the Richter Scale (the third most powerful recorded) took place in the Indian ocean off the coast of the island of Sumatra, Indonesia.

It generated a series of devastating tsunamis that travelled at speeds of 500 miles an hour and created tidal waves up to 100 feet high that struck the coastal areas of 14 countries.

It was one of the deadliest natural disasters in recorded history and killed 230,000 people – Indonesia was the hardest hit followed by Sri Lanka, India, and Thailand.

Millions more were displaced and the number who died from drinking unsafe water is unknown.

In the following days the Rotary Club of Chelwood Bridge, co-ordinating humanitarian aid response in the form of 'Aquaboxes', appealed for support.

The local appeal provided sufficient funding and donations in kind for 1,940 boxes and a further 1,260 boxes were provided by other Rotary Clubs in the district. Their aid went to Sri Lanka, India and Indonesia.

A review of 'Operation

Aquabox' resulted in a series of improvements aimed at streamlining the process and led to the establishment of the Rotary's Water Survival Box charity in the summer of 2006.

The project continues to be managed by senior members of the Rotary Club of Chelwood Bridge and the £1.3 million donated so far has been used to respond to 39 disasters in some 25 different countries during the past nine years. In order that the charity can continue to respond at the same level to future disasters they need sustained funding in the order of £150,000 to £200,000 each year.

The standard box containing a water-purification kit and other essential survival items costs £150. This covers the cost of the box, contents, and air freight to the disaster area.

The new Aquafilter Family

water purification kit can supply 18,000 litres of clean water which is the equivalent of ten litres per person for a family of five each day for a year.

Aid has been sent to 39 disaster zones between 2006 and 2014 in 25 different countries, with 9,300 water-survival boxes distributed, including:

- 2006 – Philippines - typhoon;
- 2007 – Bangladesh

- cyclone;
- 2008 – Zimbabwe - cholera;
- 2009 – Taiwan - typhoon, Indonesia - earthquake;
- 2010 – Haiti - earthquake, Chile - earthquake;
- 2011 – Japan - tsunami, Pakistan - floods;
- 2012 – Horn of Africa - drought;
- 2013 – Mozambique - floods; Philippines - super typhoon Haiyan;
- 2014 – Bolivia - floods;

Chile – earthquake & Valparaiso great fire; Serbia - floods;

Kashmir/India - floods.

Volunteer Rotarians in Chelwood Bridge manage the project with practical help from the Rotary, Inner Wheel, school, youth and other local community groups. Every pound donated is used to pay for boxes and air freight to ensure speed of response.

We've nearly done it!

▼ WATER Survival Box fundraisers at the View From were invited once again to Bridport Potato Day earlier this month, where greenfingerted visitors generously donated a total of £111.77 – pushing us ever closer to our target of £10,000.

We'd like to thank organiser Jude Hopkins and the other volunteers in local gardening group 'plan b' for asking us back.

The event, which took place at Bridport United Church Hall, also raised money for the Children's Liver Disease Foundation through the sale of heritage and heirloom seeds and plants.

Need funding for your community project?

THE PARISHES TOGETHER FUND IS HERE TO HELP

WITH 26 parish and town council projects funded in 2013-2014, the Parishes Together Fund is looking to allocate more money to local community initiatives.

For the third year running, East Devon District Council (EDDC) and Devon County Council (DCC) are inviting town and parish councils to apply to their joint initiative – the Parishes Together Fund – for grants towards projects that will solve local community issues.

EDDC and DCC are again putting £1.10 per elector into the scheme.

Each town or parish council can then apply for up to £1.10 for every person in their parish that was listed on the Electoral Roll in February 2014.

A requirement for successful applications is that two or more parishes must apply jointly for funding for anything from one-off projects to events. The final closing date for applications is February 13th.

Examples of projects funded by the Parishes Together Fund include:

- Bus shelters on a bus route between Farrington and Sidmouth - £1,650;
- The creation of a footpath at Candy's Field in Lympstone to allow access to the recreation area - £1,964;

- The purchase of computer equipment for Ottery St Mary and district computer club - £2,993;

- The purchase of gazebos for community events by Exmouth Town Council in collaboration with Budleigh Salterton - £2438.40;

- The purchase of books for a reading scheme for the primary school in Rockbeare, which has pupils from the parishes of Rockbeare and Whimple - £2,500;

- A refit for the kitchen at Younghayes Community Centre in Cranbrook - £12,000.

East Devon District Council's part of the funding for the Parishes Together Fund has come from the New Homes Bonus, which is paid by the Government to councils for every new home built or brought back into use.

Councillor Ray Bloxham, East Devon District Council member and chairman of the New Homes Bonus Panel, said: "The Parishes Together Fund is all about encouraging parishes and towns to work in partnership.

"This type of collaboration can make an incredible difference in helping address local issues.

"It is immensely rewarding for the Parishes Together Fund to receive feedback from the people responsible for these projects.

"It is good to know what a difference the funding has made. But most importantly it's about supporting communities help those in need and giving back power back to the people."

Devon County Council Leader, John Hart said: "Devon County Council is continuing to make funds available to communities to use how they see best.

"This money is available to parish and town councils to spend in ways that will benefit their communities.

"I firmly believe decisions should be made as locally as possible to encourage local accountability and I have always advocated more partnership with our district, town and parish colleagues.

"If we believe in the 'resilience' of our smaller communities, then this is one way of pump-priming activity."

LORRAYN de Peyer was born in London and came to Axminster by chance, having casually asked about rent levels when holidaying in the area. She once worked as an exotic dancer and is about to start a pop-rock choir in Axminster.

● WHERE were you born and where did you grow up? I was born in the Middlesex Hospital in the middle of London and grew up in North London.

● WHEN did you move to Axminster? I moved to Axminster 10 years ago. I was visiting friends and staying in a B&B in Musbury when I casually in passing (not for a minute thinking seriously about it) asked the owner of the B&B what the price of renting in the area was? She said: "Why don't you speak to my brother who rents out that cottage over there?" pointing to a white cottage in the middle of the valley outside the window. I did and that was it. I took it for the winter and never looked back. I was smitten and Devon became my heaven.

● WHAT was your first job, and what have you done since?

My first job was as a hairdresser's assistant to a cousin of mine just off Oxford Street in London. After I knocked down and broke the glass shelf above the wash basin, she politely told me that I might like to consider a different kind of job! I have had such a wide and diverse variety of jobs that it is challenging to summarise it all – from being an English teacher in Zambia, Africa, as an aid worker with Voluntary Service Overseas, to being a professor of psychology at a University in The Philippines; a nightclub singer in Manila with Filipino musicians and a stripper to pay for my music studies in America, after which I became a jazz singer; a songwriter and independent recording artist in the music business; a teacher in the healing arts; a musical director of pop and rock choirs, one of my present jobs. These days I just stick to music and my activities for change in the human potential movement.

● YOU released a CD (The Voice of Courage) in 2012. Tell us about it and your career in music...

The inspiration for my present album has come from my own journey and fight to bring the light into my life; fighting to grow into all that I knew I could be by finding the courage to express myself. The inner journey I have travelled to overcome a painful childhood and my fear of failure led me to begin to live the life I wanted to live, rather than the life that my parents, teachers and society prescribed for me. This has culminated in an outer journey that took me singing around the world and led me to write the songs in this album.

● WHY should people join your new pop-rock choir in Axminster? The channelling of the negative feelings into music

60 seconds saved my life and turned the destructive behaviour patterns I had inherited into something positive.

Singing and music are the best antidotes I know to everything. Simply put, singing makes you feel good and even if you feel pretty good already it can make you feel even better. It is also health-generating, empowering and importantly; this new choir is a pop-rock choir and we sing the very best of contemporary music with backing tracks and all the harmony parts recorded for you to be able to learn your part easily. You don't need to be able to read music and complete beginners as well as more advanced singers are welcome. What could be more fun than that?

● WHAT makes you happy?

One of the things I absolutely love is singing jazz with really good musicians and in 2014 I have been lucky enough to start writing and rehearsing for my next album with the very excellent Phil Clouts from Lyme Regis, who is one of the South West's premier jazz musicians. I can't wait to get out there doing gigs with my own band with Phil in 2015. It also makes me genuinely happy leading the pop-rock choirs where I am the musical director in Axminster and Taunton.

● ANY other business?

I would like to offer a word of gratitude to little old Axminster and its townspeople for adopting me, I so appreciate it for its friendliness.

To attend the Axminster Pop-Rock Choir in January or contact Lorryn about hiring her jazz band, email info@thecouragetosing.co.uk, call Lorryn on 01297 639922 or visit www.thecouragetosing.co.uk

Kilmington Pre-School

SET IN the heart of the village, Kilmington Pre-school offers early years education and childcare for 2-5 year olds. We run Monday, Wednesday-Friday mornings at Kilmington Village hall. The pre-school was rated good by Ofsted in September 2014.

The children enjoy a spacious hall where they can choose from various fun and educational activities. They have free access to our well equipped outdoor play area and learn to grow vegetables (and make mud pies!) at our allotment. The children experience diverse topics throughout the year, including safety (with visits from the police, nurses etc), science, cookery, celebrating religious/cultural festivals. We also put on shows for Easter and Christmas.

We are in partnership with Kilmington Primary School, where we share regular sessions following the Early Years curriculum.

We aim to create a happy atmosphere where children learn through play and a variety of experiences preparing them from entry to primary school. www.kilmingtonpre-school.co.uk/

AT CATERPILLARS our main focus is communication and language as we realise that without these skills children will not achieve their full potential. We have a communications and language unit based within our setting which is led by Donna, Dawn and our music therapist Leah.

As early years practitioners we are in a unique position to support the development of language and communication skills in children.

- Our staff are confident in knowing what a child should be doing at each stage of development and how to support them.

- We understand the importance of being able to talk and listen. Language is vital in order to learn, make friends and feel more confident.

- The earlier we can help the better, in UK about 1 million children will have long term speech and language difficulties. That's why all our play and activities are based around promoting and encouraging these skills.

B Sharp singers raise roof at Exeter Cathedral

Review | B Sharp Vocal Collective Beer Quarry Caves Concert at Exeter Cathedral

THERE was barely a dry eye in the house as the young voices of the B Sharp Vocal Collective rang out and raised the rafters of Exeter Cathedral last week.

The Beer Quarry Caves Concert was the culmination of a year of musical discovery that has seen children and young people from across the region working with music professionals to produce new music and songs inspired by the Beer Quarry Caves.

The B Sharp Vocal Collective filled the second half of the concert last Tuesday and followed a selection of stories, film, songs and poems organised by Woodroffe School that related to the historic caves at Beer where stone has been quarried for 2000 years and has been used to build Exeter and St Paul's cathedrals, parts of Westminster Abbey, the Tower of London and Windsor Castle.

Under the direction of composer John K Miles, the B Sharp Vocal Collective, made up of young singers from St Michael's and Mrs Ethelston's primary school in Lyme Regis, St Mary's in Bridport and Woodroffe School, along with a core group of soloists, were in stunning form, delivering formidable performances that brought a lump to the throats of parents and teachers alike.

Not only was the singing incomparably powerful, the fact that all the ideas, lyrics and melodies came from the young people themselves is a lasting testament to their creativity, ambition and talent.

The band – Deborah Jordan (vocals), Winston Clifford (drums), Dave Manington (bass) and Jack Ross (guitar) – was joined by B Sharp mentors Chloe Stratta and Jacques Verhaeren who lead the core vocalists in a series of highly polished, extremely professional performances.

Around 160 children and young people followed by their parents, invited guests and members of the public arrived in 13 free coaches laid on from rural locations all over West Dorset and East Devon and as an audience of more than 500 looked on, the concert provide a fitting finale to the project, yet another wonderful B Sharp music project that has engaged and enhanced the lives of young people throughout the region.

"It's not every day that so many children and young people from all backgrounds in the rural hinterlands of the south west get an opportunity to work together on such a large scale project with professional musicians at to perform in such a prestigious venue," says B Sharp director Fran Williams.

"Singing didn't always grab the young people at first, but once the project was underway everyone was fully signed up to it and nothing was going to dampen the spirit and commitment.

"They will remember this experience forever, it is a remarkable achievement by everyone concerned and the feedback we have collated consistently demonstrates the value and high levels of understanding and appreciation that the experience has meant to them."

Flora Jamieson, whose daughter Nelly goes to St Mary's Bridport, praised everyone who took part – not only in the final concert in Exeter, but also at previous shows in Bridport and Lyme Regis.

"From writing the songs, rehearsing and meeting children from other schools, to performing in three great venues, Nelly has grown in confidence and learnt new skills that would not otherwise have been available to her," she says.

Composer/music leader John K Miles was equally impressed.

"Awesome, committed performances, it was a stunning culmination to another wonderful B Sharp project," he said after the concert.

He went on to thank percussionist Adriano Adewale who had played in the first performance in September and Marshwood Primary School, which also took part, as well as the technical crew and the charity's board for its fundraising and support.

B Sharp's dynamic creative singing project, funded by Youth Music and West Dorset District Council, was designed to raise levels of aspiration in young people through group singing and solo singer Phoebe Hill is not the only one whose future ambitions have been boosted as a result.

"I have absorbed so much inspiration and motivation from B Sharp, which will give me the drive to realise my ambition and not give up," she says. "My dream would be to be involved in the music industry – producing, performing and making music which I know is a very competitive job, but I won't let that put me off."

B Sharp runs a varied programme of music, singing and young music leadership, with weekly music making groups where children and young people can explore and develop their music skills. It has a very clear inclusion policy and runs a bursary scheme so that nobody is excluded on grounds of hardship. For more information call 01297 444252 or email franwilliams@bsharp.uk.com.

Seaton Panto goes Oriental

REHEARSALS started on January 5th and are going full steam ahead for Seaton Panto in preparation for their production of 'Aladdin' which is being staged at The Gateway, Seaton Town Hall, from Thursday 12th to Sunday, February 15th. To produce a pantomime in just six weeks is no mean feat but over the last fifteen years Seaton have proved it can be done and with no compromise to quality. They have a reputation for their spectacular 'fun' shows for all the family and this year is no different.

The cast of forty are being put through their paces by Director Mary Bowles and Choreographer Debbie Bradley (you can be sure of some lively numbers from them) and with vocal coaching from Francesca Mills Durston and Mary, the sounds are harmonious!

They welcome the return of a few seasoned thespians this year, Phil Christmas plays the scary Abanazar, and wife Val joins Mark Mills Durston to play the comic Chinese policemen duo Wong and Pong, and last year's baddie Linda Stone plays the genial Genie. Fresh from university is Lauren Weber as Aladdin and Caraleigh Bradley takes on her first role as a princess, both girls having worked their way up to principle roles from childhood parts when the panto started. Newcomer Ben Malone makes a loveable Wishy Washee and a loyal panto trouser Milly Chaplyn is the delightful So Shy. Mark Usher takes on his first principal role as the Emperor and Holly Stock as Spirit of the Ring. Firm favourite is the Dame, as always played by Ian Waite as Widow Twankey, who is a past master of ad lib and audience banter (no man is safe), and of course no Seaton panto would be complete without their mascot Cullen the Chicken (Adam Tedbury).

The 'Charismatic Chorus', which includes eighteen children ably support the principals throughout. The show is colourful and full of surprises, foot tapping songs and barrels of laughter... a perfect treat for all the family!

Tickets are on sale now at The Gateway box office - telephone 01297 625699. The last couple of years have sold out so don't delay...get yours today!

TOP 10 TIPS MAKE THE BEST OF YOUR HOME FOR A WINTER SALE

OUR cold, wet winters brings their own set of issues to consider when preparing a home for viewings, so the Property Sharing Experts network of independent estate agents across the Westcountry has compiled a 'Top 10' to help sellers make the most of their home for a sale this season:

1. Make sure all the curtains and blinds are open to allow in as much light as possible and try to arrange viewings in daylight hours rather than in the dark.

2. Turn all the lights on for viewings - even in cupboards and garages - and make sure you have a stock of bulbs so they can be immediately replaced. If you have garden lighting, switch it on at dusk for a welcoming glow and so the 'For Sale' sign is easy for passers-by to see.

3. Make sure there is parking close by - potential buyers won't want to walk any further than they have to in the cold weather!

4. Make sure hallways and entrances in particular are kept clean and tidy. Provide a rug or seat for viewers to easily wipe or remove their shoes and boots and keep the floor clean from any mud or residue from wet shoes.

5. Windows are mostly left closed when it's cold, which allows odours to develop and linger more easily, so try to restrict pets to certain rooms, avoid cooking dishes such as fish the day before a viewing and clean more often as dust settles more quickly. It may sound like a cliché but the smell of bread baking is lovely and fresh flowers can add colour as well as a wonderful scent.

6. Maintain a comfortable indoor temperature - not too hot as buyers are likely to keep their coats on during viewings. If you have an open fire, light it for a warm, welcoming feel. Empty properties can become prone to condensation mould and burst pipes at this time of year so an amount of heat and ventilation is paramount; clean out and keep clear any corners or alcoves showing signs of condensation mould to allow it to dry properly.

7. Offer potential buyers a warm drink - this encourages them to stay for longer, makes them feel comfortable and allows them to get a real feel for the property.

8. Keep gardens tidy, make sure paths and steps are kept clear of snow and ice for easy entry and keep paths, patios, greenhouses and decking clear of green algae and moss, which can build up at this time of year. Also, repair any storm or weather damage as soon as possible.

And make the most of time spent indoors on cold, wet days:

9. De-clutter to make your home feel bigger. Box up some of your favourite knick-knacks and either give old items to charity or make extra money by selling unwanted items.

10. And do some easy DIY jobs - give tired rooms a new lease of life with a lick of paint or replace mouldy old sealant in kitchens or bathrooms for those all-important fresh finishing touches.

Fairfield House

AT FAIRFIELD House the staff use their skills and training to help our residents have balanced and nutritious meals. Many people as they get older struggle with eating for various reasons, loss of appetite, difficulty swallowing, difficulty holding cutlery...

There are lots of ways to stimulate appetite and interest in food and drink. Knowing the person will help, as everyone has their own routines, preferences and needs. You will also have a better idea about their likes and dislikes. It's also important to think about what they can physically manage.

Our Chef prepares a choice of home cooked food, which looks and smells tempting.

The aroma of cooking coming from the kitchen will help stimulate appetite and he provides a variety freshly baked breads for people to enjoy while lunch is being served. Regular snacks or small meals are provided throughout the day and night.

It is important to provide food the person likes. Try not to overload the plate with too much food; small and regular portions often work best. We also use coloured plates and cups for those people who may have a smaller appetite, as this can increase appetite.

At Fairfield House we have activities such as "smoothie socials" and "fruity Fridays", our residents enjoy this and it's good to use eating and drinking as an opportunity for activity and social stimulation.

As we get older our food tastes may change, so experiment with stronger flavours by using spices and herbs. If you do consider pureed food, seek advice from a dietician or speech and language therapist to make sure it's nutritious and remains flavoursome.

We encourage people to get involved at mealtimes. They can help prepare the food or lay the table. Positive encouragement and gentle reminders to eat, and of what the food is, may help. As can a relaxed, friendly atmosphere with some soft music may help.

Fish and Chip Friday at Fairfield House

OUR Head Chef Paul Fenner, before joining Fairfield House in 2008 successfully ran his own bistro. Paul's specialty is seafood, hence fish and chip Friday is not only immensely popular with our residents but also tends to be a busy day for visitors who enjoy Paul's delicious fish and chips.

Freshly caught fish from Lyme Bay encased in a bubbly but crisp batter served simply with thick cut chips and a slice of lemon is the perfect end to the week.

Fairfield House Residential Care Home Lyme Regis, Dorset

At Fairfield House carers put residents at the heart of everything they do.

We provide bespoke care for each resident, bearing in mind their past and present. Residents can take part in a wide range of activities, sit back and enjoy the entertainment programme or relax in our beautiful gardens taking in the stunning views over Lyme Bay.

We also offer respite and day care packages in a comfortable and relaxing environment.

Tips for coping with change

FOCUS on the things you're grateful for. The longer you live, the more you lose. But as you lose people and things, life becomes even more precious. When you stop taking things for granted, you appreciate and enjoy what you have even more.

- Acknowledge and express your feelings. You may have a hard time showing emotions, perhaps feeling that such a display is inappropriate and weak. But burying your feelings can lead to anger, resentment, and depression. Don't deny what you're going through. Find healthy ways to process your feelings, perhaps by talking with a close friend or writing in a journal.

- Accept the things you can't change. Many things in life are beyond our control. Rather than stressing out over them, focus on the things you can control such as the way you choose to react to problems. Face your limitations with dignity and a healthy dose of humor.

- Look for the silver lining. As the saying goes, "What doesn't kill us makes us stronger." When facing major challenges, try to look at them as opportunities for personal growth. If your own poor choices contributed to a stressful situation, reflect on them and learn from your mistakes.

- Take daily action to deal with life's challenges. When a challenge seems too big to handle, sweeping it under the carpet often appears the easiest option. But ignoring the problem doesn't make it go away; it allows both the problem and your anxiety to build. Instead, take things one small step at a time. Even a small step can go a long way to boosting your confidence and reminding you that you are not powerless.

Tips for eating well as you age

AS YOU age, your relationship to food may change along with your body. A decreased metabolism, changes in taste and smell, and slower digestion may affect your appetite, the foods you can eat, and how your body processes food. The key is to figure out how to adapt to your changing needs. Now, more than ever, healthy eating is important to maintain your energy and health.

Load up on high-fiber fruits, vegetables, and whole grains. Your whole digestive system does slow as you age, so fiber is very important. Consume fiber-rich foods such as whole grains, fruit, and vegetables. They will help you feel more energetic and give you fuel to keep going.

Put effort into making your food look and taste good. Your taste buds may not be as strong and your appetite may not be the same, but your nutritional needs are just as important as ever. If you don't enjoy eating like you used to, put a little more effort into your meals, including the way you flavor, prepare, and present your food.

Watch out for dehydration. Because of physical changes, older adults are more prone to dehydration. So make sure you are drinking plenty of fluid, even if you don't feel thirsty. If you're not getting enough water, you're not going to be as sharp and your energy will suffer.

Make meals a social event. It's more enjoyable to eat with others than alone. If you live alone, invite other people over. It's a great way to stay in touch with friends and you can share cooking and cleanup duties.

Bymead House

BYMEAD House Nursing & Residential Home in Charmouth has been owned by Susan Blacklock - a qualified nurse with a background specialising in Community Nursing - for 20 years.

Her philosophy is to provide truly individual and therapeutic support including complementary therapies such as acupuncture, to whatever degree is wanted or required.

She has always believed that this support should extend to the families and friends of those living at Bymead House as they form an important integral part of the care network within the home.

Bymead has always been proactive with the care provision and facilities on offer to the residents.

We continue to work towards the 'Gold Standards Framework in Care Homes', this will enhance the excellent care we already provide and is part of a national initiative to achieve the best quality of life for our residents particularly towards the end of life.

A very important part of the support Bymead provides is their extensive activities programme.

In line with their philosophy of holistic care, these activities are tailored to suit the individual needs of their residents.

The varied weekly programme reflects hobbies the residents may have had in their previous home and any new interests are encouraged and supported. Also outings to favourite destinations are chosen by the residents.

Sue Bartlett-Hall, activities co-ordinator, has been instrumental for many years in taking forward Susan Blacklock's vision of the therapeutic importance of social activities in relation to the happiness and wellbeing of people living within a care home.

Using local suppliers has always been important to Bymead House, this ensures that Bymead have frequent deliveries of fresh local produce each week enabling them to provide a varied, nutritious and tasty menu and special diets are also catered for.

Bymead continues to grow and develop as a vital care provider in the community.

Residents are encouraged to make the rooms their own personal space with favourite pieces of furniture, pictures and paintings.

All bedrooms are single and most are en-suite whilst each room has a telephone and television.

Bymead House would welcome any visits to the home, at any time, to see the benefits on offer.

How to feel young and live life to the fullest

STAYING healthy and feeling your best is important at any age and that doesn't change just because you have a few more grey hairs. As we grow older, we experience an increasing number of major life changes, including career changes and retirement, children leaving home, the loss of loved ones, and physical changes. How we handle and grow from these changes is the key to staying healthy. These tips can help you maintain your physical and emotional health and live life to the fullest, whatever your age.

Finding and following your formula for staying healthy

Coping with change is difficult, no matter how old you are. The particular challenge for adults over 65 is the sheer number of changes and transitions that start to occur—including children moving away, the loss of parents, friends, and other loved ones, changes to or the end of your career, declining health, and even loss of independence. It's natural to feel those losses.

Daley Home Care

DALEY Home Care, the registered Domiciliary Care Agency, is helping clients from Lyme Regis to Dorchester to remain independent in their own homes. The team of friendly, personable carers are all highly trained, complementing their experience, (all have enhanced CRB disclosure) and guided by Registered Manager Julie Daley, who has a wealth of experience of the care industry. Julie also runs a 3 star rated Care Home and Domiciliary Care Agency in Shropshire and with fellow director Mark Roberts is now replicating these excellent standards in West Dorset.

We Care For You by Caring About You is Daley Home Care's simple message and sums up the company ethos. They are able to offer a full range of services, from personal care and help with domestic tasks to full palliative care. Helping clients regain their independence after hospital treatment and getting them to appointments and social events are all included. Daley Home Care is dedicated to providing the very highest standards of care 365 days a year, and their charges reflect this, being the same every day, ensuring every client enjoys the dignity and respect they deserve. Contact Daley Home Care on 01308 898 345 or email daleyhomecare@btconnect.com

But if that sense of loss is balanced with positive ingredients, you have a formula for staying healthy as you age.

Healthy aging means continually reinventing yourself as you pass through landmark ages. It means finding new things you enjoy, learning to adapt to change, staying physically and socially active, and feeling connected to your community and loved ones. Unfortunately, for many, aging brings anxiety and fear instead. How will I take care of myself late in life? What if I lose my spouse? What is going to happen to my mind? However, many of these fears stem from myths about aging that are exaggerated by the media or simply untrue. The truth is that you are stronger and more resilient than you may think.

Tips for boosting vitality

DON'T fall for the myth that growing older automatically means you're not going to feel good anymore. It is true that aging involves physical changes, but it doesn't have to mean discomfort and disability. While not all illness or pain is avoidable, many of the physical challenges associated with aging can be overcome or drastically mitigated by eating right, exercising, and taking care of yourself.

It's never too late to start! No matter how old you are or how unhealthy you've been in the past, caring for your body has enormous benefits that will help you stay active, sharpen your memory, boost your immune system, manage health problems, and increase your energy. In fact, many older adults report feeling better than ever because they are making more of an effort to be healthy than they did when they were younger.

Oak Lodge Care Home

Dignity is a basic human right, not an optional extra

PHYSICAL comfort is just one measure of quality of lifestyle. Your needs, your preferences, and your well-being are what come first at Oak Lodge. The house is registered to provide personal and nursing care for older people, with a very successful, separate area dedicated for the provision of specialist dementia care. Twenty-four hour cover is provided by a qualified, experienced and committed care team. They have recently been individually recognised as a company and a home, for their high standards and attention to detail that differentiates Oak Lodge from other homes. Oak Lodge isn't just a place to stay, but a place to call home.

At Oak Lodge we believe that another important aspect of maintaining our high standard of accommodation is redecoration when it is needed. Many of our rooms have been refreshed in recent months, including our new quiet room. This is a beautifully decorated lounge area with views of the garden where residents may spend time with visiting loved one, or simply relax.

Staff at Oak Lodge are also supporting the national initiative of Dignity Champions. A Dignity Champion is someone who believes passionately that being treated with dignity is a basic human right, not an optional extra. They believe that care services must be compassionate, person centred, as well as efficient, and are willing to try to do something to achieve this.

Please don't hesitate to call for advice, or for an information pack, with no commitment necessary. Our telephone number is 01460 67258.

ROOTS TO HEALTH

Modern Herbal Medicine

Roots To Health is a local complementary consultancy, advice and prescription practice run by qualified medical herbalist Jayne Palmer.
Herbal medicine, or Phytotherapy, is a science in its own right, based on modern scientific research. It's the world's oldest and most widely-used form of medicine and uses plant extracts to treat common health complaints such as raised blood pressure, headaches, stress and indigestion.

Jayne has a BSc in Phytotherapy. She spent many years working in local health food stores as a herbal advisor, then decided to work within a conventional medical role as healthcare assistant at Honiton Surgery, in order to gain the benefits of both fields of medicine.

Last year, she decided to set up her own clinic, which she now offers at the Health and Wellbeing Centre in Axminster on Mondays and at the Chiropractic Health Centre in Honiton on Saturdays.

Jayne explains: "Herbs can be used to treat the body in many different ways and, combined properly, will work effectively as medication for a large range of diseases. We are all unique and will respond to herbs differently. As a herbalist, I'm trained in the same diagnostic skills as orthodox doctors and choose herbs specifically for each individual. I search for, and treat, the underlying cause of the problem, rather than just the symptom, to restore the body's balance and activate its own healing powers.

"I believe that conservation is vitally important and use organically-grown plants wherever possible. Similarly, I try and source locally-grown plants to treat local ailments and actively promote sustainable prescribing of herbal medicines."

The BMW 1 Series For 2015

▲ The BMW 1 Series for 2015

NEARLY two million 1 Series models have been sold since the introduction of the first 1 Series generation ten years ago. This latest incarnation builds on the winning formula of these three- and five-door predecessors with new power units from the latest BMW engine family, additional EfficientDynamics technologies fitted as standard, and careful enhancements to the exterior and interior design.

The level of standard equipment is now even higher, new options have been added and with new mobility services from BMW ConnectedDrive, there are even more ways to increase the functionality and personalisation of the new 1 Series.

Design

The proportions, lines and surface design of the new BMW 1 Series bear all the classical hallmarks of a BMW with its set-back passenger compartment, long bonnet and short overhangs, in particular, give it a uniquely sporting presence. The new car features subtle but key differences to refine yet further the overall package. At the front, a new lower apron with larger air intakes and a horizontal bar combines with reshaped BMW kidney grilles and new headlamps that feature LED daytime driving lights as standard on all models. For the first time, full LED headlamps with low and main beam have been added to the options list, with Adaptive LED headlamps a further option. These follow the path of the road ahead, and also adapt their beam according to the type of road and conditions at any given moment. At the rear, new tail lamps with a familiar BMW 'L' shape design adopt striking LED technology.

The driver-focused cockpit of the new BMW 1 Series is an even more welcoming, sporty, comfortable place to sit, thanks to enhancements to the design, and the materials and fabrics used. In particular, there's a new cloth fabric for the seats.

The BMW Radio Professional and iDrive operating system continues to be standard across the entire range so all new 1 Series models feature the freestanding, 6.5-inch Control Display, the controller wheel mounted on the centre console, and the direct menu control and favourites buttons. If the optional Professional Navigation system is fitted, the Controller comes with a larger, touch-sensitive surface for inputting numbers and characters, while the onboard monitor takes the form of an 8.8-inch display of particularly slim design.

The controls arranged below the Control Display have also benefited from detailed refinements. Both the air vents and the controls for the radio and the automatic air conditioning now feature high-quality chrome surrounds. The radio and automatic air conditioning keypads, meanwhile, are set against high-gloss black panelling.

Engines: a new power unit family
 The new BMW 1 Series sees the introduction of powerplants from the BMW Group's new engine family, plus an expansion of the standard-fit BMW EfficientDynamics technology.

The new engines bring a reduction in fuel consumption of up to 12 per cent while simultaneously providing more power and sharper responses. All engines meet the Euro 6 exhaust emissions standard and offer as much as 326hp in the new M135i, with CO2 emissions as low as 89g/km in the new 116d EfficientDynamics Plus model. The eight-speed Steptronic transmission has been further refined.

LOCAL DERBY ENDS HONOURS EVEN

Thorns blunted by Hawks half dozen – Sidbury inspired by Churchill

South-West Peninsula League
AXMINSTER TOWN 1 BUDLEIGH SALT 5
 AXMINSTER Town remain rooted to the foot of the South-West Peninsula League table after visitors Budleigh Salterton consigned them to an eighth consecutive defeat.

"We had a few players missing, but it doesn't hide the fact that we just didn't play well enough on the day," said joint manager Keith Somers.

Budleigh were 2-0 up at half-time and doubled their lead before Pete Knox pulled one back with his eighth goal of the season.

But the visitors had the last word as they restored their four-goal cushion.

Sunday's Axminster Hospital Cup-tie between Axminster Town and Lyme Regis at Cloakham Lawns was postponed.

Next up for Ax is Saturday's visit by Totnes & Dartington (at Feniton, 2.15ko).

Sidmouth Town also tasted defeat as they went down 7-3 in a goal-fest at Marshford against hosts Appledore who move up into second place as a result.

The Vikings will hope for better, but may have their hands full again, when they visit third placed Galmpton United at the weekend.

D&E LEAGUE REPORTS

Seaton Town 1 Beer Albion 1

Premier Division

IN front of a large crowd at Colyford Road, Seaton Town and Beer Albion shared the spoils in a closely-contested local derby.

The game took a while to spark into life, both sides appearing somewhat overawed by the occasion. The crowd had to wait until the 20th minute for the first real threat on goal and it came from Beer's Chris Long whose clean strike from 20 yards fizzed just wide.

Beer were now starting to press and a free kick from Long was headed over by John Cooper.

The Seasideers were however starting to exploit space down both flanks caused by Beer's narrow midfield and defensive line-up and keeper Steve Jones had to alert first to save a Josh French lob on 30 minutes and to tip a fierce shot over the bar.

Back came Beer who closed the first half strongly and Joe Adkin's downward header was scrambled off the line by the Seaton defence.

In a much more exciting second half, Beer adjusted their formation with wing-backs Sam Phillips and Josh Harrison providing more width.

The Fishermen were now enjoying their best spell of the game with some direct incisive football and took the lead on 60 minutes when a Long free-kick was tucked away by James Melville beating Seaton keeper Mark Rooke's despairing dive.

As in recent weeks Beer had opportunities to increase their lead but failed to press home the advantage.

Then, Seaton fought their way back into the contest. On 78 minutes, Jones made a fine save at full stretch to keep out French's free-kick. Minutes later Jones was in action tipping a fierce shot over the bar.

French then struck a fierce shot which Jones pushed on to the underside of the crossbar and then blocked the rebound with another save.

With less than 10 minutes to go, and for the third game in a row, Beer conceded a late penalty.

Then dramatically on 89 minutes Seaton equalised as Beer conceded a late goal for the third successive game. French floated a free kick into a crowded six-yard box which Jones was unable to punch away under pressure and Seaton skipper Michael Hancock bundled the ball home.

EXETER UNIVERSITY 5THS 7

AXMINSTER TOWN RES 1

Division Three

TOP scorer Matt Hewer's fifth goal of the season couldn't save Axminster Town Reserves from a hefty 7-1 defeat at Exeter University.

Despite the score line, Ax manager Ray Self felt his troops were by far the better side in the first-half.

But a Dom Tait own goal and a second Uni strike just before the interval proved to be decisive.

The Tigers continued to press for the next 20 minutes before the floodgates opened and individual mistakes were punished as the hosts eased 7-0 ahead before Hewer's late consolation.

Beer Albion Res 3 Langdon Res 1

Division Six

BEER Reserves continued their good run with a comfortable 3-1 victory over Langdon 2nds at the Furzebrake.

Beer led 1-0 at half time through a Simon Smith goal after striker Robert Adkin's header was saved.

Langdon equalised at the start of the second half only for Beer to restore their lead a minute later through Adam Brewer.

Leading scorer, Robert Adkin scored Beer's 3rd goal to seal the victory for the Fishermen.

After the game player-manager, Simon Smith, was delighted that his side were finding form again after an indifferent run towards the end of 2014.

He felt his promising young side achieved this victory without being too stretched and singled out the outstanding performances of "veterans" Robert and Martin Adkin.

Round-up with Collin Goodwin
WHIPTON & PINHOE are through to the East area final of the Devon Intermediate cup after they beat fifth division SANDFORD 4-3 with a last minute extra time penalty.

W & P only reformed again this season but the Division 7 side won a great tie when Dexter Booth scored the winner from the spot, his second goal. Ryan Crocker and Dean Voaden, who was red-carded before half-time, also scored which made the result even more remarkable.

The other semi final between TIVVY PARK RANGERS and KENTISBEARE was postponed until next Saturday.

SIDBURY UNITED stole the show in Premier as they beat HEAVITREE UNITED 1-0 courtesy of an 80th minute Dan Churchill strike.

Leaders TIVERTON TOWN drew 2-2 at FENITON whose keeper Chris May was man of the match with a late penalty save and another acrobatic top-corner stop.

Danny Lewis and a Charlie Selley penalty earned Feniton a point. Danny Jones and Jesse Howe scored for the Yellows whose Adam Wakley was red-carded.

ELMORE won 4-0 at BUDLEIGH SALTERTON and dominated the game scoring through Jon Dawe, Callum Old, Jordan Copp and Matt Atkins.

NEWTON ST CYRES moved within a point of top spot in Division One with a 3-1 victory at EXMOUTH AMATEURS. Sam Johnson 2 and a Callum Stone penalty won it for the Cyres.

HEAVITREE UNITED are off the basement rung for the first time after despatching WITHERIDGE 4-0. A Scott Jones hat-trick and Stacey Thorpe supplied the goals.

EXETER UNIVERSITY 3RDS beat EAST BUDLEIGH 5-0, and their 4TH team won the only game played in Division Two, Josh Higgins getting four goals in a 7-1 lashing of HEMYOCK. Darren Ofoe netted twice.

To complete the treble the UNIVERSITY 5THS also won 7-1 at home to AXMINSTER TOWN in Division Three, with Pierce Bennett getting a brace.

CHAGFORD won a thriller against TEDBURN ST MARY 4-3, Josh Stanbury 2, Euan Stone and Robbie Miller scoring for the home side. Darren Hughes struck twice for the Teds.

LYME REGIS moved back to second place after a 5-1 win at CLYST VALLEY, two goals coming in the first two minutes. Mark Bailey (2, 1pen), Dom Rowe, Matt Laing and Joe Bond were Lyme's marksmen.

WOODBURY settled for a 1-0 win against THORVERTON with Dan Tapp getting their goal.

Four matches in Division Four but only one winner, leaders COUNTESS WEAR DYNAMOES edging AMORY PARK RANGERS 2-1.

ST MARTINS drew 2-2 against LORDS after going two down. Matt Anderson and Jake Brock netted the Saints goals.

Division Five leaders FLUXTON won a cracking match against UPLOWMAN 3-1, Olly and Alex Paget and Hayden Figures scoring. Jordan O'Leary replied.

HALWILL stormed STARCROSS GENERALS 9-3 with Jon Knight and Sam Stockdale getting hat-tricks. Singles came from Thomas Ogbourne, Ryan Hauerslav and Matt Thornley.

Goal machine Kev Pitt had both goals as OTTERTON beat STOKES HILL 2-0.

Division Six leaders OTTERY ST MARY won 2-0 against WOODBURY, Connor Swingle and Jonny Beer scoring.

Brad Morris struck twice for DUNKESWELL 4-1 winners against BRADNINCH, and Adam Kefford also scored twice for NEWTON ST CYRES in their 2-2 draw at SILVERTON. Adrian Selway and Jamie O'Connor scored for the Silvers.

SOUTH ZEAL won 9-3 against CENTRAL in the only Division Seven game played.

In Division Eight the referee refused to start the match between TEDBURN ST MARY and COLYTON as the pitch was frozen.

Good starts for Ax and Honiton

AXMINSTER with David Harris

The Club started the year with mixed fortunes but managed to win four of the seven matches played.

The Ladies did well winning both of their matches - first 38-26 at home against the DEVON PATRONS with wins for Jean Kesterton, Alison Glyde, Ann Clayton and Margaret Crompton (20-17) and Pam Clark, Jo Barnish, Jan Parsons and Judith Moffitt (18-9) and then 67-64 against SIDMOUTH at home with wins for Sheila Cox, Angela Rattenbury, Jan Parsons and Judith Moffitt (31-15) and Pam Hunter, Margaret Ball, Alison Glyde and Margaret Crompton (25-14).

The men were unlucky to lose a friendly 57-58 at home to SIDMOUTH with wins for Andy Curtis, Alan Foster, Doug Hislop and Bob Sherborne (25-18) and Brian Downton, Derek Pheby, Jack Wakeley and Brian Clark (20-18).

The men then lost their Devon County Over 60s match against MADEIRA CLUB 69-95 despite good wins for the home rink of Arther Stone, Roger Legg, Paul Moffitt and John Gough and the away rink of John Packham, Tony Payne, Howard Keep and Eric Skeemer (25-19).

Otters edge top two clash

THE First week of fixtures after Christmas were disrupted by bad weather only the two matches played at Colyton.

The top two teams were in action against each other with Otters hoping to maintain their 100 per cent record whilst Upwoman were hoping for a victory to put them on top of the table.

With Tracey Moran playing well for Otters at centre they took the first quarter 9-6 before extending their lead to 18-13 at half way.

The third quarter went goal for goal with Upwoman trailing 21-26 going into the final period.

Emma Burroughs at GD for Upwoman kept the Otters attack at bay and the Upwoman attack closed in on the deficit but the Otters held on to win 32-31.

The other game played saw Flamingos move up to third by virtue of their 47-16 win over lowly JD Tyres who are still looking for their first win of the season.

With Trish Warwick playing well, the Flamingos led from the start and never looked back although Tanya Broom worked hard in attack for JD.

youth rugby
honitonTitans show their classHoniton Titans U10s - Withycombe -
Sidmouth

DUE to late arrangements of this three-way fixture the Titans had little time to prepare for these games none the less performed well and looked like the best team of the cluster.

After their amazing unbeaten run in December the Titans continued their impressive strides forward with another pair of magnificent displays.

First up were hosts Withycombe and a fine first half display saw the titans camp within the opposition's half, running in at the break 20-0 ahead.

The second half was a different story and Withycombe attempted a fight back, but the Titans went up a gear and proved and ran out as comfortable 40-15 winners.

Next came Sidmouth - a team who have built a solid reputation around the area and who walked away as a superior outfit when the two teams met back in October.

But this time Honiton exploded out of the blocks and put Sidmouth on the back foot. They did cross over for a try that was unfortunately disallowed. This saw the team momentarily lose concentration and Sidmouth capitalised to take the lead midway through the first half.

After the break the tempo intensified. It was at this stage Honiton took control of the game and they equalised with a bustling try following a maul and were unfortunately unable to record a win after a magnificent performance.

Captain of the day and playmaking inspiration was Jonny Glover with Alfie Madge awarded the player of the day!

Coach Simon Lancaster said: "The consistency of this team is impressive - with all players holding their own and performing to their maximum.

The game against Sidmouth was special, it was a clear message that Honiton U10s are a force to be reckoned with."

Seniors Report

IN the January Medal for the Axe Cliff Seniors there were some very good scores.

The weather was perfect, the course was wet after overnight rain but playing well for those who were hitting straight and the overall scores reflected these conditions.

Unfortunately for Gerry Turner, playing off 12, his magnificent net 68 only gained him 3rd position as Nick Povey (19), who is playing very well at the moment, pipped him with a net 66.

But even he was outdone by the reliable Peter Knighting (16) who also scored 66 and won on the countback ruling.

The ever present duo of Tony Strong and Alan Vincent had to be content this time with the reward of the only twos of the day.

For the rest of us it is back to the practice ground to try and eliminate those high scoring holes which seem to bug our game when it comes to medal competitions.

The Men's Section played Winter League on the 11th format stableford Texas Scramble 20 per cent of combined handicap; 1st Craig Trivett & Alex Todd 46pts, 2nd father and son partnership Simon and Alex Palmer 43pts 3rd Pete Northcott & Jimmy Matthews 42pts there were three twos - Andrew & Anthony Hellier, Craig Trivett & Alex Todd and Chris Glover & Alan Kenworthy.

The Ladies Section played Winter League round three on January 14th - format stableford; 1st Margaret Kenchington, 2nd Bee Sammons and 3rd (on back nine) Janet Dack.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

AGAIN it was all about the weather but luckily the course was open, if a little frosty, and a full field turned out for the first Stableford of the New Year - it was definitely a chance to clear the head and start to shed those Christmas pounds.

The higher handicaps in division two seemed to enjoy the course set up most with Tim Morris sneaking first place ahead on count back of namesake Andy Morris, both with 41pts. Andy Wall was third with an impressive 38pts.

Division One winner was Alan Devenny with 39pts, Julian Bacon took second with 35 and Ian Drew was third with 32.

◆ WELL DONE: Su Calver and Bob Barnes

Tuesday Mixed

SIXTEEN hardy Members set out to play a Greensome Stableford competition with four clubs and a putter. However, the rough weather rolled in so the competition was reduced to 10 holes.

Obviously on very good form, the winners with an excellent score over the 10 holes of 28pts, were Stephanie Barnes playing with Allan Seager. In second place with 23pts on c/b were Jane Watts and David Hughes.

After the results were announced Jennifer and Richard Pyle then presented the Tuesday Mixed Golfer of the Year Trophy to Su Calver with runner up Bob Barnes.

Looking good

SEATON under 9s returned to action after the Christmas break and were straight back into the groove with two great results.

First up they beat CITY RAIDERS 5-1. Aaron Hale cracked in a superb hat-trick with some clinical finishing and was a thorn in the opponents side all game.

Henry Matthews clipped in a well taken goal and Max Nevell completed the scoring sweeping in with his weaker foot, after some slick team play.

Leo Gribble and Billy Fowler were excellent in defence. George Gait pulled the strings in midfield, putting in a Man of the Match performance.

Next up were WHIP-TON and this was a much closer affair, finishing 0-0.

Keeper Adam Clinch was the hero saving a penalty with a full length dive to tip the well struck shot around the post.

The game was an end to end thriller but neither team could find a way through.

Harvey Green and Daniel Byrne caught the eye with some tough tackling and good use of the ball.

Olympic bobsleigh medal aim for Wyatt

A FORMER Axe Valley Community College student has been chosen as one of eight athletes from over 1000 applicants in the UK Sport, English Institute of Sport (EIS) and British Skeleton talent search 'Power2Podium' to be trained for the Great Britain Skeleton Bobsleigh team.

Marcus Wyatt (23) who currently attends Swansea University and works part time at the Tuckers Arms, Dalwood when he returns home explained his exciting news: "Basically, during the coverage of Lizzy Yarnold winning gold in the 2014 Sochi Winter Olympics, some of the presenters mentioned that British Skeleton were running a talent identification program called Power2Podium.

"This was aimed at those with sporting backgrounds that might transfer well to skeleton bobsleigh.

"After hearing about this I decided to apply as I thought my past involvement in football with Seaton Town, athletics (sprinting and long jump) and American football at Swansea University might help me as well as the fact I have always enjoyed trying new sports, especially those with an element of danger.

"After being chosen to come to the first phase of trials based on my application, I made it through the different selection phases which culminated in a two week trip to Lillehammer, Norway to slide for the first time and this was used as the final selection phase.

"It was an incredible feeling to find out I had got through as the competition from the other athletes was very tough and a lot of very talented people missed out."

Marcus left for Igls, Austria last Wednesday where he will commence training before spending time in Germany and Norway.

"The next few years have the potential to be extremely exciting for me but it will require a lot of hard work.

"Obviously myself and the guys that got through are currently at the bottom of the ladder.

"We will have to prove ourselves to be good enough over the next few years to improve to a standard where the ultimate aim is to win gold at a future winter Olympic games."

The eight - four women and four men will be attempting to follow in the footsteps of Yarnold who was discovered through similar scheme Girls4Gold in 2008.

Delivered by the UK Performance Pathway

Team (a collaboration between UK Sport and the EIS), Power2Podium was a search for athletes who could adapt to skeleton and potentially compete at the 2022 Winter Games.

Dr Stewart Laing, Head of the UK Performance Pathway Team, said: "Following the success of previous campaigns like Girls4Gold, which unearthed Lizzy Yarnold and helped successfully transition her into skeleton, we are confident that these athletes will have the best possible chance of realising their full potential.

"They will now benefit from a full range of world class support and the very best equipment.

"It's a truly exciting opportunity for these athletes and for British Skeleton as they work towards the ultimate goal of winning an Olympic medal."

Andi Schmid, overall performance adviser for British Skeleton, said: "The selection process is the first stage and in British Skeleton we have the good record of success in converting talent into medal winners.

"We have a good idea of the characteristics of a potential medal winner - but to guide them through the process is something quite different.

"We need to give them the time and opportunity to learn how to operate in an individual sport but in a team environment at our centralised training base at Bath."

◆ BLADE RUNNER: Marcus Wyatt could be appearing on our TV screens competing for Team GB at future Winter Olympic Games
